

Please protect internet neutrality by strong oversight of ISPs under Title 2. The internet is a vital tool for so many users. It is vital for the economy of the US and gives young entrepreneurs, usually without money and financial backers, the freedom to start a business and become a taxpayer. Often going on to become employers as well. The internet is one of the last vestiges that helps level the playing field between individuals and large corporations.